Show Opening 10am-5pm
Saturday 17 September

Victor Pasmore was one of the leading abstract painters of our time and a major figure in 20th Century Art. An inspirational artist, he pioneered the development of abstract art in Britain in the 1940's and 50's and paved the way for a new generation of abstract painters.

His work is held in all the major international collections of modern art and he continues to inspire artists and collectors worldwide.

Wetpaint Gallery is delighted to exhibit this important artist supported by contemporary abstract painters Matthew Lanyon and Nathan Pendlebury.

30 Oct - 13 Nov

'Fine Wine'
Etching by Trevor Price

Wetpaint Gallery will launch the festive season with a showcase of new work by some of the gallery's favourite artists at the Brewery Arts Pop Up Gallery.

Renowned British artist Eric Gill will lead the show with his popular wood engravings, supported by Clare Crouchman, Emma Dunbar, Catherine Headley, Catherine Hyde, Anita Klein, John Piper, Trevor Price & Fiona Watson.

The exhibition will continue at Wetpaint Gallery until 24 December.

New Art at Wetpaint
Mark Demstader
Artist Q&A 19 Nov

'Amy Seated'
Oil on board by Mark Demstader

In the second of this series of informal discussions, Mark Demstader will be talking about his life and work as a painter.

Mark's work has developed from a fascination with the human form and an obsession with classical themes. In recent years his reputation has flourished such that he has become one of the most popular figurative artists working in Britain today.
